

Kūlia i ka Nu‘u

STRIVE FOR THE HIGHEST

Konohiki me ke Aloha

Discover how waiwai Hawai‘i, or Hawaiian values, were used to execute basic leadership functions of planning, organizing, building and motivating teams, solving problems and resolving team conflicts during this 7-hour training program.

Module I: Na Konohiki - The Role of the Supervisor

Learn how fundamental Hawaiian family values such as pono, kuleana, `ike, kokua, aloha and malama were used to care for the land, plants, fish and the people. These values can be applied to define your role, responsibility and accountability as a leader.

Module II: Nā Mahi‘ai - Planning & Organizing

Examine how the values of ahonui, kuleana, `ike, malama, laulima and pono are applied to organize activities such as planting, fishing, and food preparation, as well as building and repairing canoes and homes. These same values can be used to plan and manage projects.

Module III: Lauhoe - Team Building with Aloha

Hawaiians used values such as malama, `ohana, laulima, lokahi and maika`i to successfully navigate and travel in canoes. These values in practice today, can be used to build, motivate, and successfully navigate your teams.

Module IV: Ho‘oponopono - Resolving Conflict with Aloha

Resolving conflicts is never easy. Learn how values such as pono, olu`olu, laulima, lokahi and maika`i during the ancient practice of Ho‘oponopono can help you to resolve conflicts and foster effective relationships.

Please contact Shirley Tsukano at (808) 734-9701 or stsukano@hawaii.edu to consult on your training needs.

In partnership with

UNIVERSITY of HAWAII®

KAPI‘OLANI
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

ENGAGE. LEARN. ACHIEVE.