Hawai'i Passenger Arrivals By Air

HONOLULU – Yesterday, 1203 people arrived in Hawai'i. During this same time last year, nearly 30,000 passengers arrived in Hawai'i daily, including residents and visitors. Yesterday marked two months since the state's mandatory 14-day self-quarantine started for all passengers arriving in Hawai'i from out of state. The quarantine order was expanded on April 1st to include interisland travelers. This table shows the number of people who arrived by air from out of state yesterday and does not include interisland travel. This data was collected from the Hawai'i Department of Transportation's (DOT) new Mandatory Travel Declaration Form.
