Hawai'i Passenger Arrivals By Air

HONOLULU – Today marks 17 weeks since the state's mandatory 14-day self-quarantine started for all passengers arriving in Hawai'i from out of state. Yesterday, 2,360 people arrived in Hawai'i. During this same time last year approximately 35,000 passengers arrived in Hawai'i daily, including residents and visitors. This table shows the number of people who arrived by air from out of state yesterday and does not include interisland travel. This data was collected from the Hawai'i Department of Transportation's (DOT) Mandatory Travel Declaration Form.
