Hawai'i Passenger Arrivals Data on HTA's Website

HONOLULU – Starting today, the Hawai'i Tourism Authority (HTA) will publish daily trans-Pacific passenger arrivals data only on its website. This will replace the issuance of daily press releases.

The trans-Pacific passenger arrivals data will now be derived from data provided by the new Safe Travels program, which was launched on September 1st. The Safe Travels program, developed by the State of Hawai'i Office of Enterprise Technology Services, replaces the previous paper forms that were used to collect the required health and travel information.

To see the passenger arrivals data along with other COVID-19 updates and information, visit:

HTA will continue to publish its monthly Visitor Statistics press releases.
