

Fact Sheet: Benefits of Hawai'i's Tourism Economy

Hawai'i Tourism Industry in June 2022¹

Prior to the global COVID-19 pandemic, Hawai'i achieved record-level visitor expenditures and arrivals in 2019 through February 2020. On March 26, 2020, the state implemented mandatory quarantine and travel restrictions. Subsequently, nearly all trans-Pacific and interisland flights were canceled, cruise ship activities were suspended and tourism to the islands all but shut down. In October 2020, the state initiated the Safe Travels program, which allowed travelers to bypass quarantine if they had a valid negative COVID test. Through March 25, 2022, domestic passengers could bypass the state's mandatory self-quarantine if they were vaccinated or have a negative COVID pre-travel test. The Safe Travels Program ended on March 26, 2022. In June 2022, passengers arriving on direct international flights through June 11 were subjected to federal U.S. entry requirements which included proof of an up-to-date vaccination document and negative COVID-19 test result taken within one day of travel, or documentation of having recovered from COVID-19 in the past 90 days, prior to their flight. This requirement was lifted on June 12, 2022. There were no travel restrictions for passengers arriving to Hawai'i on domestic direct flights from the U.S. Mainland.

Total spending by visitors who came to the islands in June 2022 was $1.83 billion, an increase of 12.3 percent compared to the $1.63 billion reported for June 2019. A total of 842,927 visitors came in June 2022. Of the total visitors, 841,809 arrived by air service, mainly from the U.S. West and U.S. East. Additionally, 1,118 visitors arrived by cruise ships. In comparison, 947,112 visitors (-11%) arrived by air (946,373 visitors, -11%) and by cruise ships (738 visitors, +51.5%) in June 2019. The average length of stay by all visitors in June 2022 was 9.44 days, up from 8.80 days (+7.2%) in June 2019. The statewide average daily census² was 265,157 visitors in June 2022 compared to 277,930 visitors (-4.6%) in June 2019
